PERSONAL

Comings and Goings of Local People and Others.

MRS. F. H. BRUCE, wife of Manager Bruce of the Nevada-California Power company local office, has returned from Texas where she spent the past six months resting following an operation. She has improved wonderfully in health during this time.

J. W. BERG, justice of the peace at Round Mountain, was an arrival yesterday from the hydraulic camp.

CHARLES KIRCHEN, head of the Associated mill at Manhattan, came in from the placer camp last evening.

C. H. MINTOSH of Tonopah and Rochester arrived yesterday from the new Humboldt county camp. After a brief stay in Tonopah he will return to Rochester.

D. S. LLEWELYN, the Round Mountain mining man, came in from his home district yesterday and will spend several days here attending to business affairs.

HERMAN ZADIG, the San Francisco broker, who spent Saturday in this district looking after mining interests, departed yesterday morning for the coast.

C. D. ZIEGLER, who, in addition to occupying the office of mayor of Millers, has been voted the most handsome man in the mill city, spent yesterday in Tonopah, returning to his own bailiwick this morning.

REV. J. M. SWANDER of the Presbyterian church left for Las Vegas on this morning's south bound train. He will return Thursday.

MRS. HUGH H. BROWN was a passenger on train 23 this morning for Reno, where she goes as a delegate from the local Equal Franchise club to the state convention to assemble in the riverside city tomorrow.

JAMES FORD of Oasis arrived from the Peterson ranch last evening and will visit with his wife and daughter, Mrs. Dr. O'Neal for the next week.

OTTO WISE, chauffeur of the Consolidated Auto company, returned from Walton, Ore., last week. Wise was called to his mother's bedside about a month ago when her life was despaired of but since then his mother has improved in health but little and the estimable lady cannot survive her malady very long.

A. H. PETT, general manager of the T. & G. railroad, came over from Goldfield this morning and is here on company business.

MRS. SARAH C. CRUMLEY, mother of Grant and Newton Crumley, arrived from Newkirk, Okla., on this morning's incoming train. She will visit with the Crumley families for the next two months.

PRESIDENT OF AUSTIN COMPANY UNDER ARREST

PROMINENT SWISS BANKER IS DECLARED TO HAVE DEFRAUD-ED COUNTRYMEN

Hans Bauder, president of the Austin Manhattan Consolidated Mining company, and head of several banks in Switzerland, has been arrested at Chicago upon complaint of the Swiss government. It is charged that Bauder defrauded hundreds of his countrymen out of huge sums. The property of the Austin Consolidated company is located at Austin, Lander county, and is regarded as the most valuable holdings in the district.

Concerning the arrest of Bauder, Associated Press dispatches sent out from Chicago, have the following to say:

Hans Bauder, president of the International Realty association, and head of the savings banks in Basle and Zurich, Switzerland, was arrested here today by officers on complaint of the Swiss government. It was charged that Bauder swindled citizens of Switzerland out of nearly $500,000 by fraudulent bank and mining schemes. He was held without bail pending extradition proceedings.

As president of the Austin-Manhattan Consolidated Mining company, a Nevada concern, Bauder is alleged to have returned to Switzerland, his native country, two years ago and sold several hundred thousand dollars worth of stock. Investigators employed by the Swiss government charge that the stock is worthless.

While negotiating the stock sales Bauder is said to have opened the banks in the Swiss cities. It is

Have you a "stent" musical instrument in your home? Unless it's anchored there by sentiment, let a "for sale" ad in the Bonanza find a buyer for it.

As only news of real value-giving makes good store advertising, it follows that a store must be able to print such news, in abundance, if its advertising is to accomplish anything.
